MEDICINAL.

Sideache,
Backache,
ache,

And many other aches to which women are peculiarly subject are generally the result of a diseased condition of the womanly organism. When this diseased condition is cured, sideache, backache, headache, etc., are cured also. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity, dries the drains which weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. When these diseases are cured the aches they cause are also cured.

"I will drop you a few lines to-day to let you know that I am feeling well now," writes Miss Annie Stephens, of Belleville, Wood Co., West Va. "I feel like a new woman. I took several bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and I have no headache now, no backache, and no pain in my side any more. No bearing-down pain any more. I think that there is no medicine like Dr. Pierce's medicine. I thank you very much for what you have done for me—your medicine has done me much good."

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book containing 1000 pages, is given away. Send 21 one-cent stamps for expense of mailing only, for the book in paper cover, or 21 stamps for the volume bound in cloth. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PULLED WU'S CUE.

Minister Wu Tieg-fang went to Milledgeville, Ga., yesterday to deliver the commencement oration to the graduating class of the Georgia Military College, and in the afternoon paid a visit to the State Insane Asylum. While the party was passing through the institution an inmate suddenly became seized with a mania and caught Minister Wu by the cue, which was hanging down his back. It was jerked and pulled with great force, causing excruciating agony. The minister struggled wildly, and when he was freed from the cue, the man's grasp on the building and got in his carriage, demanding that he be driven back to the city at once. He was overtaken by friends and his nerves were quite.

In the course of his address at the military college Mr. Wu spoke feelingly of the relations that should exist between the governments of the earth, and gave as an instance, the generous aid accorded by the United States to the island of Martinique in the recent disaster. He spoke of the boxer trouble in China, and lauded the skill with which the Emperor Dowager managed the affairs of state during those times. Mr. Wu leaves in the morning for Atlanta. Minister Wu Tieg-fang said that all efforts made by Americans and other foreigners to guess the cause of absolute loyalty and devotion of the Chinese subjects to time of trouble had been futile. He explained that it was due to college training, and was one of the five relations inbred in Chinese children, viz: To honor father and mother in life and after death, so as to preserve under all conditions devotion to the sovereign power; to respect; to honor the relation between husband and wife, and also that between friend and friend. He said no Chinese merchant had ever defrauded a man out of a penny in business transactions, and no parent's will had ever been attacked in China. He says China does not have to be governed by the sword, because the principles of loyalty and devotion are too thoroughly instilled in the youth of the land, and that this is due to college training as well as to other causes. He said the chief difference between college education in America and in China is that here primary importance is given to the mental training, and in China moral improvement is made of first importance.

The explanation for Minister Wu's surprise visit to Charleston is reported to be as follows: The Georgia committee which went to Washington to invite him to Milledgeville found him unwilling to make any more public speeches; he said he did not want to be attacked by the press, and to avoid this Senator Teller was more opportunist to attack him in public utterances. Senator Bacon, of Georgia, intervened, and finally managed to convince the minister that Senator Teller had no desire to annoy him and would be glad for him to make the trip to the South. The minister then accepted Milledgeville's invitation, and incidentally dropped in at Charleston en-route.

WAR ON SALOONS.
War on the saloons in Richmond, alleged to have kept open on Sunday took a new turn yesterday morning, when Commonwealth's Attorney Richardson summoned Police Capt. Whitlock, Huie, and Angie, together with two newspaper reporters, to appear before the grand jury next Monday to testify to the truth of widespread assertions that the saloons generally remained business last Sunday. The police captains will be asked to give any information they have in the matter or any facts they may have which might lead to development, while the newspaper reporters responsible for the stories of an open Sunday will be required to give their sources of information. Through a gradual process of unification the various temperance organizations of the State are being drawn together for more effective work against the saloon. The Anti-Saloon League of Virginia will be the great central body of the group. Apart from the league and its large number of branches, there are also a variety of smaller temperance organizations in the State. These are the ones which are being gradually drawn into the league. The Good Templars have already joined forces, and the Rev. C. H. Crawford, the superintendent of the league, has just been invited to visit Hyco, in Halifax, and arrange to have the organization there connected with the league. This organization is at present called the "Christian Federation Against Liquor." The prohibitionists also are taking a great interest in the work of the league, not as party men, but as individuals.

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth, use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They also cure biliousness, sick headache and constipation.

Don't Start Wrong.
Don't start the summer with a lingering cough or cold. We all know what a "summer cold" is. It's the hardest kind to cure. Often it "hangs on" through the entire season. Take it hand right now. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Cure will set you right. It cures coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. Children like it. "Once started Chamberlain's Cough Cure is the best cough medicine I ever used," says J. W. Bowles, Groverton, N. H. "I never found anything else that acted so safely and quickly. For sale by R. S. Leadbeater & Sons."

More Harmful Than Alcohol Overeating Worst Form of Intemperance.

If your food is undigested, you are underfed, no matter how much you eat. And the underfed man is, to the extent of the undigested food, crippled for the battle of life. On the other hand, there is such a thing as overeating. The harm done by indigestion caused by overloading the stomach exceeds that from the increased heart beats caused by the use of alcohol or whiskey. But as much good food as you need but don't overload the stomach. If your stomach is weak it may refuse to digest what you eat. Then you ought to use a good digestant like Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which digests what you eat without the stomach's aid. This rest and the wholesome tonics contained in Kodol Dyspepsia Cure soon restore health. You don't have to diet. Don't eat too much. That's harmful. But eat enough and of sufficient variety. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest it. It quickly relieves the sensation of fullness and bloating from which some people suffer after meals. It prevents belching and absolutely cures indigestion and other stomach troubles. Equally good for children.

Samuel James, Marysville, O., says: "I suffered from dyspepsia for thirty years but a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cured me and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers from this disease."
